

Stephen E. Biegun

Stephen E. Biegun is vice president of International Governmental Affairs for Ford Motor Company. In this role for Ford, he oversees Ford's international governmental relations, including the Company's global trade strategy and political risk assessment around Ford's twenty-five global manufacturing locations.

Prior to joining Ford in 2004, Mr. Biegun served as national security advisor to Senate Majority Leader. Before joining the staff of the Majority Leader, Mr. Biegun worked in the White House from 2001-2003 as Executive Secretary of the National Security Council. Prior to joining the White House staff, Mr. Biegun served for 14 years as a foreign policy advisor to members of both the House of Representatives and the United States Senate.

Mr. Biegun is a third generation Ford Motor Company employee. He graduated from the University of Michigan where he studied Political Science and Russian Language. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Aspen Strategy Group, and serves on the boards of the US-Russia Business Council, the US-Russia Foundation for the Economy and Rule of Law, the U.S.-Russia Investment Fund, the Moscow School of Political Studies, and Freedom House.